Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you for your letter of 10 March. I welcome opportunities to exchange views with groups such as yours, and hope our schedules will permit us to meet here at the Agency during your April visit to Washington.

I will ask [redacted] our Coordinator for Academic Relations, to contact you to discuss details. My schedule has become a bit unpredictable of late, but subject to exigencies beyond my control, I will be pleased to put your visit on my calendar. And, in any event, some of my senior colleagues will be on hand to join in the discussions.

I look forward to our meeting.

Sincerely,

STAT

6 DIVINITY AVENUE
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS 02138

March 10, 1975

The Hon. William E. Colby
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Colby:

I shall be in Washington with the senior Fellows of the Center in the period April 21-25 inclusive. I am writing to ask if you and perhaps one or two members of your staff would be kind enough to spend a little time with the group briefing them on the functions and role of the intelligence community.

STAT The Fellows are devoting this year to advanced study and research at Harvard. Most of them are government officials, and one, [REDACTED] is an official of the Agency. All of them are responsible and experienced men with a constructive interest in international affairs.

Their visit to Washington is an annual event involving meetings with Secretary Kissinger and others at the White House, State Department, Pentagon, the Congress, World Bank, etc. We have met repeatedly with such officials as Admiral Zumwalt, the late General Abrams, General Scowcroft, Hal Sonnenfeldt, Joe Sisco, Robert MacNamara, George Shultz, Jack Bennett, Charles Cooper, and a number of senators and congressmen.

This year if possible I would like very much to include the Agency in the schedule, and I would be extremely grateful if we could have an opportunity to meet you personally.

If this seems feasible to you, I would be glad to discuss it with member of your staff and fix a suitable time. I can be reached at (area code 617) 495-2112 or 495-2114. Over the next week or so I shall be setting up appointments with officials of a number of government agencies and organizations, but at this moment the schedule for the week in Washington is quite open and flexible.

I hope that you can do it. I think you would enjoy meeting the group, and for our part it would be a great pleasure to see you.

With warm regards,

Sincerely yours,
